(Passed on 4th July, 2006)

A fully private dispute is brought before this Court by filing this writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India. The facts are simple and straightforward. According to the petitioner, out of the wedlock between her mother Sewati Bai and the third respondent, she was born, but, the third respondent disputes that the petitioner is his daughter. In the circumstances, the writ petition is filed for a direction to the State Government of Chhattisgarh and the Collector, Raipur who are arrayed as respondents one and two respectively, to conduct a DNA test for respondent no. 3 and to decide his relationship with the petitioner. In addition, certain other reliefs are also sought. This writ petition does not involve enforcing any public law obligation. If the third respondent disputes parenthood of the petitioner, it is for the petitioner to workout her legal remedies in a properly instituted civil suit before the jurisdictional civil Court. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. No costs.
